

Caribbean Export Development Agency

Programme to Launch Caribbean Food Products in UK and EU markets

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Are we eligible to apply as a company or would direct contracts with consultants be preferred?

A company or individual consultants can apply.

2. Please could you advise the total number of beneficiaries requiring assistance under these terms of reference?

Caribbean Export has not determined the total number of beneficiaries, however the minimum we are considering is 5, with the maximum to be determined by the overall cost of the project.

3. Are we able to preview a list of the proposed beneficiaries? If we are unable to see a list of beneficiaries, can we confirm the category is only sauces and condiments?

Caribbean Export can confirm that the category is only sauces and condiments.

4. Would it possible to share a target budget for the project?

Caribbean Export has not determined the cost of this project, however in line with paragraph 8, we welcome a technical and financial proposal including fee per beneficiary in the programme, as well as associated fees for a programme of this nature.

5. Have any beneficiaries exported to the target markets before?

Yes, beneficiaries are CARIFORUM sauces and condiments SMEs who have exported to some or all of the markets in some measure.

6. What is the number of person days for this project?

Paragraph 5.2 makes reference to the project timeline.
